2025 GROUP RATES & POLICIES

THE OASIS AT DEATH VALLEY: ONE UNIQUE DESTINATION – TWO UNIQUE HOTELS

Contact Group Sales at sales-oasis@xanterra.com for Room Rates and Availability

THE INN AT DEATH VALLEY

Set against the hillside, the exclusive and private Inn at Death Valley resort looks out over the valley toward the Panamint Mountains. Natural springs run right through the hotel and lush palm trees and flowering bougainvillea adorn the grounds. Completely renovated, The Inn features brand new casitas, a spring-fed pool, and classic California-desert style.

THE RANCH AT DEATH VALLEY

The sprawling, 3-diamond Ranch at Death Valley is the energetic center of activity in Death Valley. Set next to the National park Service Visitor Center, you can enjoy a classic town square with towering date palms and mission California architecture. There's lots of room to spread out with huge lawns set along an 18-hole golf course – the lowest elevation course in the world and a natural spring-fed pool to help keep cool.

PLAY THE WORLD'S LOWEST-ELEVATION GOLF COURSE

Rated one of "America's 50 Toughest Courses" by Golf Digest, The Furnace Creek Golf Course at Death Valley offers golfers the chance to test their mettle against the low elevation, low barometric pressure, and perhaps even a coyote or two that will make a golf ball dance in mysterious ways.

DINING AT DEATH VALLEY

Experience the charm of fine dining in one of the world's most remote settings at the Inn or savor a hearty meal in a casual atmosphere at the Ranch. Satisfy your appetite in the elegant Inn Dining Room or the more family-friendly offerings at the Ranch. Guests also have the option of dining at the Wildrose Tavern, the Ranch at Death Valley's newest dining option offering an open dining space looking out to the golf course with its tamarisk trees and mountain vistas.

THE INN DINING ROOM

The Inn Dining Room offers fine dining for breakfast, lunch, and dinner with stunning views of the desert salt pans and the majestic Panamint Mountains. Weather permitting, service is available on the Inn Terrace offering unobstructed views of our spectacular location and the brilliant blue sky or evening stars. The Dining Room proudly serves a menu featuring classic cuisine.
